

RAF WEEKEND AT AMIGOS DEL CIELO, NM

November 4-5, 2017

Join RAF New Mexico State Liaison Ron Keller for a fun filled weekend at Amigos del Cielo (NM90). Camp and enjoy stargazing, bird watching and a catered fajita dinner Saturday night!

Please register and pre-pay for the meal here so we know how many people to plan for. Please note the airstrip is on the edge of an MOA. Your registration is your permission to land at this private airstrip for the weekend.

Read and print Safety Briefing here.

Register Now

Optional Activities:

- Horseback rides available at nearby DDGamble Ranch. Please contact them to reserve your ride, <https://www.ddgambleguestlodge.com/horseback-riding>
- The Chiricahua Desert Museum, $3.00 per person, <http://www.chiricahuadesertmuseum.com/>

Food:

Saturday night's catered dinner features steak and chicken fajitas with all the fixins' for a $20 nonrefundable preregistration fee. (If you are unable to attend, your fee will become a tax-deductible donation to the RAF.) Please register here for dinner so we have a head count for the caterer.

Plan to bring food and beverages for the rest of your stay, or enjoy a meal or buy supplies at the Portal Peak Lodge, 10 miles from the airstrip — open 9 am to 6 pm all weekend.

Accommodations:

- Courtesy car available.
- Restrooms and showers on site.
- Bring tie-downs and camp gear so you can sleep under the stars with your airplane;

Or

- If you are feeling a little less adventurous contact one of the local lodging options below:
- Portal Peak Lodge, 528-558-2223 | <http://portallodge.com/>
- Airport Manager, Peter Jarosak has 2 houses on the airstrip with rooms for rent, 219-405-9725
- Or contact local Michelle Simpler, (575) 654-5998 for other lodging options.

For general information, contact Ron Keller at rkeller@theraf.org